Dear Pete:

This will acknowledge your letter of 14 July. I am glad to see that you will be in Washington during August. Please give me a little warning as to the precise date, and perhaps we can arrange to have lunch.

I will be glad to pass your itinerary along to our interested representatives.

I look forward to seeing you in a few weeks.

Cordially,

Dear Dick:

I am getting ready to make a trip to the Southeast Asia area this autumn, and am taking the liberty of sending you a brief itinerary. You may recall that in the summer of 1968 I visited the area, and benefitted very much from some courtesies extended to me by several persons to whom you had circulated my itinerary on that occasion. I hope it may be possible for this to be done again.

I hope to be in the Washington area for a day or so in late August, and, if so, will try to look in on you for a moment, if time and security permit.

STATINTL

Yours sincerely,

Remarks: Bill, Would you please pouch this itinerary to the appropriate Stations. As you will recall, [REDACTED] used to be in OCI. Also, we gave him a bit of a hand when he traveled in Asia in the summer of 1968. I do not think that he will be any trouble, and would appreciate a bit of a lift where needed. mt
